

4th Annual National Biotech Essay Contest 2016

Theme:
Uganda in 2025: How biotechnology will change Agriculture

Topic: In your opinion, how will modern biotechnology change Uganda's agricultural sector by the year 2025?

1. Eligibility

Participation is open to all Secondary School, and College/University (undergraduate) students

2. Submission criteria

- All essays MUST be written in English, in clear, legible handwriting or typed. Typed essays should be printed on a single-side, in Times New Roman font, font size 12, line spacing 1.5). Word count: 800-1000 words.
- All entries MUST adhere to the stipulated word limit; non-adherence to the stipulated word limit will lead to automatic disqualification.
- Each submission MUST include a cover page with details of the contestant/student's full name, class, gender, reachable telephone contact, valid school address, email address where applicable, as well as name & contact details of a collaborating teacher.
- Only one submission is permitted per participant. Joint authorship is not allowed.
- All entries must be original, unpublished work authored by the contestants themselves. Providing a reference wherever necessary will be an added advantage. Full details of the references should be provided on the last page of the essay.

3. Rewards

Lots of prizes to be won by best essays in the different categories, including; cash prizes & fully paid internships.

Original submissions should be sent, not later than 31st July 2016 at 5:00pm, to:

Fourth Annual National Biotech Essay Contest
C/o The Coordinator
Uganda Biosciences Information Center (UBIC)
National Crops Resources Research Institute (NaCRRI)-Namulonge
P.O Box 7084, Kampala
Phone: 0414 573016
OR SEND TO: ubic.nacrri@gmail.com

Any submissions sent beyond the deadline shall not be considered.

For more information, write to UBIC:

ubic.nacrri@gmail.com

www.ugandabic.org

facebook.com/ugandabiosciencesinformationcenter

@UgandaBIC

NARO

NaCRRI
NATIONAL CROPS RESOURCES RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Ubic
Uganda Biosciences Information Center